

DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1907.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

WHO DID THIS, ANTHOW?
Father, dear father, come home with me now;
The clock in the steeple strikes two;
Mother's new waist buttons all in the back
And she can't get it shut without you.

IF you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Lexington's new union passenger station will be opened for business next week.

George Latham, a prominent farmer, is dead at his home in Bath county, aged 82.

Miss Mayme Key is seriously ill with intermittent fever at the hospital in Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mrs. Fanny Glascock has been quite ill at her home in Limestone street for the past two weeks and her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is much better.

The handsome Postoffice furniture and outfit that did service before the new Government Building was erected, has been sold and was shipped yesterday to Harrodsburg, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas MacClintock of Millersburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Lelia, to Mr. Charles Robert Jones. The wedding will take place in the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bridges of Portsmouth will leave this week for Milwaukee to attend the Convention of the Secretaries and Treasurers of the U. C. T.'s to be held in that city.

For Rent—The splendid store, 51 West Second, now occupied by Bargains Store. Possession July 1st. Apply to THOMAS A. DAVIS.

The "Premier" diamond, the largest diamond ever discovered, weighed 1 pound and 3 ounces when taken from the South African mine. The stone is valued at $45,000,000 and is to be cut into smaller gems.

While waiting for the arrival of Henry Abel, to whom she was to be married on her twentieth birthday, Miss Bess Horn, of Ashland, received a telegram announcing his sudden death at Columbus, Ohio. He secured a position in Columbus a year ago and had prepared a home for his bride in that city. They had been sweethearts since childhood.

The game of ball yesterday at Flemingsburg between the home team and Maysville boys resulted in a victory for the latter, the score being 19 to 8. W. E. Smith of this city was struck in the forehead by a pitched ball and knocked senseless and it was several hours before he recovered. With the exception of a very black eye, the young man is all right this morning.

Mrs. M. C. Russell has The LEDGER's thanks for a bouquet of her exquisitely beautiful poppies grown in the yard at her home in East Third street. Mrs. Russell is devoted to the flowers and spares nothing to make her yard a bower of all that is lovely in plant life. Her poppies, especially, are rich and varied, of every possible color and tint, and are a pleasure to all who can see their splendid bloom in such abundance in the yard.

Nine hundred feet of fifteen inch sewer pipe is being put down in the Sixth Ward, beginning at Washington and extending East on Second street. When Marcus Hanna Eitel completes the work laid out in the East End, that part of the city will have right smart of a sewer system, notwithstanding those who are not informed as to the amount of improvements that have taken place in the last two years, are talking to the contrary.

BUTLER—PARSONS.

Mr. Samuel W. Butler, aged 41, of Indiana, and Miss Edella G. Parsons, aged 40, of Lewis county, were married at Tollesboro, yesterday.

TOLLE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tolle are happy over the arrival of a fine son at their home in West Second street. Jim is one of the C. and O.'s expert electricians at Covington, but remained at home yesterday to play with the new arrival.

The test of whether or not the state can issue a saloon license in a prohibition district, where the city license still runs after the state's authority to sell has expired, was tested at Bowling Green and determined by the County Clerk issuing the license. The County Judge is expected to hand down a written opinion.

The item going the rounds in the press in regard to the C. and O. issuing orders to engineers not to make up lost time, must still be hung up in some high pigeon hole. The trains continue to run at top speed, both around curves and when behind time. Only death of the engine driver's can stop it.

THE affinity between the bar-rooms and the Police Court was never better demonstrated than in Mrs. CARRIE NATION's case. When she tackles a bar-room she invariably lands in the Police Court.

UNLESS Governor FOLK intervenes to save their lives, an even dozen men will be hanged in Missouri during this week. Two of these, however, are now confined in a mad house, and this will probably operate to save their lives. Some of the others may be given a respite of thirty days.

EVERYTHING is said to be fair in love and war. A Nebraska youth had his mother arrested so she couldn't interfere with his wedding. That boy shows executive ability of the highest order.

A LEXINGTON saloonist was arrested last Sunday for selling pint bottles of whisky snugly tucked in the center of loaves of bread. A combination, as it were, of the "staff of life" and the "oil of joy," a spectator says.

If Senator FORAKER is elected again to the U. S. Senate, he will, of course, consider it an indorsement of his course in the Brownsville affair. FORAKER is incendiary enough now. What will he be if he is again returned to the Senate?

REPORTS received by the Interstate Commerce Commission show that for months the railroads of the country have been unable to supply a sufficient number of cars to handle the traffic offered them. Car shortage develops only in time of unusual prosperity. Taken all in all, the Government authorities believe that business will continue and increase in volume probably from one end of the country to the other.

THE JUDGE OUTWITTED.

Fayette Advertiser.

A Missouri lawyer, defending a man accused of house-breaking, spoke like this:

"Your Honor, I submit that my client did not break into the house at all. He found the parlor window open and merely inserted his right arm and removed a few trifling articles. Now, my client's arm is not himself, and I fail to see how you can punish the whole individual for an offense committed by only one of his limbs."

"That argument," said the Judge, "is very well put up. Following it logically, I sentence the defendant's arm to one year's imprisonment. He can accompany it or not, as he chooses."

The defendant smiled and with the lawyer's assistance unscrewed his cork arm and, leaving it in the dock, walked out.

SATURDAY, JUNE 29th, we start a Clearance Sale of Spring and Summer Goods, to be continued for 10 days. On account of the unfavorable weather conditions this spring business fell off. Consequences are too much stock. We will try to cut it down if low prices will do it. More tomorrow.

Strawberries, HOME GROWN

Are now coming. My usual arrangements with the growers will enable me to place on the market here within two hours after picked the finest berries that come to this market. The berries will be sold in the original packages filled by the pickers in the patches and in full size cups, consequently the buyer will always get full and honest measure. No dumping out and refilling will be allowed in my house.

"PERFECTION" is the name of the finest Flour sold in Maysville. No better can be made. It always gives satisfaction.

COFFEES—My stock is the largest in the city. I buy directly from the importers green and have them roasted and blended according to my own ideas after an experience of many years in the business. Always fresh; no stale goods ever offered.

TEAS—My stock is the finest and prices the lowest. Can't beat them anywhere.

FRESH VEGETABLES—During the season my house, as usual, will be headquarters for the very best and freshest Vegetables the markets afford.

CUT PRICES ON CANNED GOODS still continue and will until all closed out.

HAMS AND BREAKFAST BACON—My arrangement with the packers enables me to offer to the trade the finest and most delicious that can be made. Always cured out of selected young hogs. When you want the best always buy the Star Brand in Red Canvass.

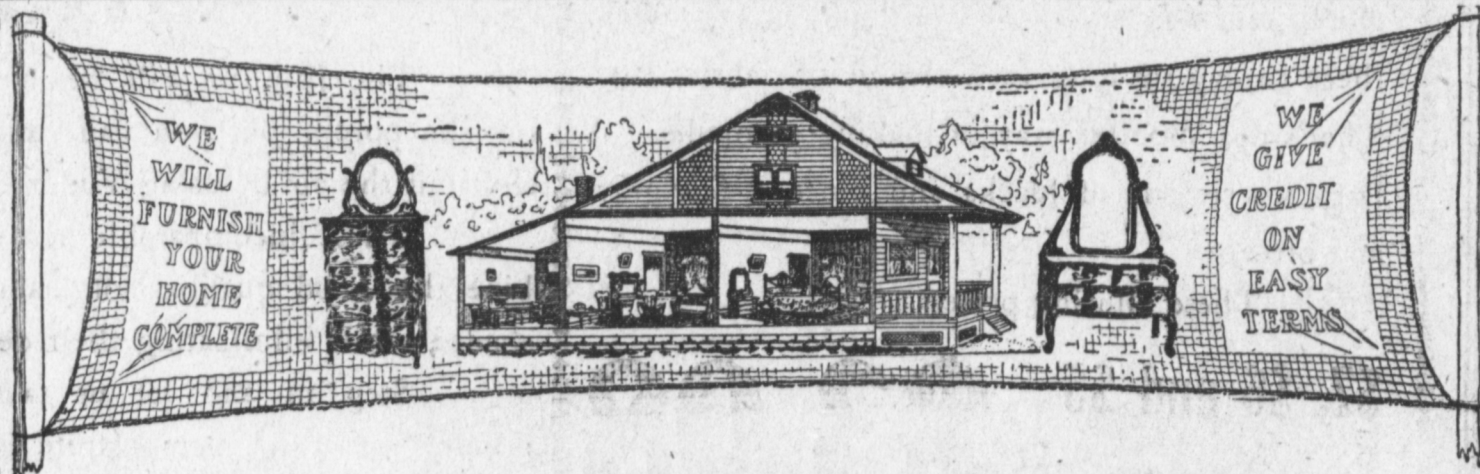

My LARD is made by the same packer especially for my trade and is strictly Pure Leaf Lard. I guarantee every article I sell to be just as recommended. I buy Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Country Hams, Bacon and all kinds of Country Produce, for which I pay cash. Country people when in our city specially invited to come in; you are always welcome.

OLD-FASHIONED FOURTH

Why Not Have One This Year in Maysville—Let the Eagle Scream Again

What fond recollection to memory dear, have those of us who can recall a Fourth of July of fifty years ago. The days when the spirit of '76 still had an abiding place in the heart of every citizen and patriotism was more in evidence than the rush for the almighty dollar and the accumulation of wealth, as is the case today.

Then it was that the village blacksmith's anvil did service in the absence of a cannon in pealing forth salvos and the star spangled banner floated in the breeze in honor of the occasion. The cornstalk militia paraded, while the shrill notes of the fife and the beat of the snare drum furnished martial music for the marchers. It was a gala-day in which all joined and enjoyed.

How different are the times?

The reverence for the day is fast passing into oblivion and the teachings and principles for which it stands will soon be a thing of the forgotten past.

Can't some of the Twentieth Century boys inculcate a little life into the dying spirit and in some manner rejuvenate the times by having an old time Fourth of July next week?

A parade of some kind out of the ordinary, grotesque or otherwise, with a picnic in the woods, reading of the Declaration of Independence, orations and dancing.

Think the matter over boys, and let us have something doing that will attract a crowd to the city, instead of having our citizens going elsewhere to enjoy the day.

Governor Beckham will name his appointments for the Louisville offices tomorrow made vacant by recent decision of Court of Appeals.

Miss Lucile Alexander of Owingville, the daughter of wealthy parents, and Mr. Rollie Parsons of Salt Lick eloped to Ironton Saturday and were married.

Charles D. Webb, Associate Editor of The Bourbon News, fell through a trap door in the office floor at Paris, which had been carelessly left open, and dropped a distance of ten feet, sustaining painful injuries.

WORK WILL STOP

Orders Issued by Chief Engineer of C. and O. Railway

Officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway have received orders from the Chief Engineer, Richmond, Va., that all construction work now in progress on the road will cease July 1st. Completion of trackage, bridge work and buildings will be postponed indefinitely.

No exceptions were made in the order, and the force of laborers at work between Cincinnati and Huntington, W. Va., the Cincinnati Division, numbering several hundred, will be discharged.

The reasons are not definitely known, but it is generally surmised that the tightness of the money market is responsible. For the last two or three years the C. and O. has been doing considerable construction on its Cincinnati Division, but the railroad is supposed to have run out of ready cash.

There are one or two way station depots half completed that will necessarily be left in that condition until work is resumed. Sidings not finished will remain so likewise. Every form of construction is to stop at the end of June.

TOOK AWAY THE EVIDENCE.

Bridegroom's Proof That He Had Been a "Real Sport."

A Denver hotel man tells the following story and says it's true: A few days ago a bride and groom from the country registered at the hotel. "What are your rates for room and board for two?" asked the groom. "Six dollars," was the reply. That was satisfactory, and the two were given a room. When they decided to leave the groom asked for his bill. It was $24. He was staggered. "What!" he ejaculated. "Twenty-four dollars! That's an outrage. You said six dollars." "Six dollars a day," came from the clerk. "Six dollars a day!" "Six dollars a day!" the groom almost shouted. "I thought you meant six dollars a week." The clerk simply smiled. Finally the groom paid over the money. "Now," he said, calming down somewhat, "wait a minute. I want to go upstairs. Keep that money in your hand." The clerk didn't understand, but he decided to humor the man. The latter soon returned with a camera. Aiming it at the clerk he took a picture. "This is the highest-priced place I ever stopped at," he explained. "I just wanted a picture to show my friends that I was a real sport here in Denver." Then he and his bride gathered up their telescopes and went out.

HAD HIM DEAD TO RIGHTS.

Circumstantial Evidence Certainly Was Strong in This Case.

"Yes, they call it circumstantial evidence. But she won all right." So said the old gentleman reminiscently to his companion, a younger and much less experienced man. The two men were discussing life in double harness. The younger one was anxious. He felt half afraid. So he consulted his friend, older and far more experienced than he in the matrimonial field. "But how did they prove it?" queried the young man. The older man had been telling him of his own peculiar experience. And he told it in a sad way. "Well," replied the experienced one, "Nell, she stuck a needle in her waist about a year before I got so strong. And that blamed needle kept working around there all the time. I got kinder strong and kept on going. I was there to see her most every night. Finally that blamed needle worked out of my arm and she had me dead to rights. It doesn't pay to get too close to a good thing sometimes."

Why He Sought the Mourners' Bench.

"Once we had a revival, and I attended it with my girl. She got quite excited, and before I knew what was happening she started for the mourners' bench. She didn't ask me if I'd go. She just got up and went all by herself. Well, she knelt down there, and I see that right next to her was kneelin' a feller she'd been goin' with some and who was a rival o' mine. I said: 'By gosh! I can't stand that! Maybe he'll be ketchin' her.' There was just a little room between her and him, and I stepped up and knelt so as to separate 'em. I cut him out that time, and he didn't marry that girl. As far as that goes, neither did I. Oh, well, you can't be young but once!"

Jewels of English Women.

Many English society women are the owners of jewels worth the proverbial king's ransom. Perhaps the largest collections belong to the duchess of Portland and the duchess of Marlborough, but Viscountess Iveagh is the possessor of one of the most valuable necklaces in England. Her pearls are worth over $350,000, and took Lord Iveagh a long time to collect. Lady Rothschild, the countess of Dudley, the countess of Annesley and Lady Denman all own most beautiful pearls. The duchess of Roxburgh and the Marchioness of Dufferin both have a large number of turquoises.

Plants for the Garden.

As a bed of solid color phlox drummondii is very effective. Cannas entail considerable labor in the planting in the spring and removal to the house for protection in the autumn, but the phlox, being perfectly hardy, makes a permanent bed. Gardeners are now substituting them for the tender plants. After the tops are cut off in the fall a two or three-inch coating of stable manure insures strong growth the following season. If one happens to see a desirable shade all that is necessary is to make cuttings three inches long, plant in the open ground in a moist situation and in three or four weeks rooted plants will be procured.

Didn't Want to Make Trouble.

When Bobbie went to see his grandmother he was much interested in whatever went on in the kitchen. One day she said to him: "I'm going to make you a nice little pie in a saucer, all for yourself. Don't you think I'm pretty good to take so much trouble?" Bobbie pondered. "Grandma," he said at length, "mother told me not to be a bother, and if it's goin' to be any trouble you can just as well make my pie reg'lar size."—Harper's.

Signed the Pledge.

Gunner—"How in the world did Mrs. Bender reform her husband from tipping?" Guyer—"By a magnifying globe full of goldfish." Gunner—"Magnifying globe?" Guyer—"Yes. Bender came home one night, spied the globe and vowed he was about to be swallowed by a school of whales. The next morning he felt so ashamed he signed the pledge."

SOCIETY

Miss Scottie Worthington will entertain to night at her beautiful home on Hilltop.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Holstein celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary last evening at their cozy home in East Fourth street. The anniversary was participated in by the members of the Finch Club all of whom are warm friends of the bridal couple.

The occasion was delightfully enjoyable, the refreshments dainty and toothsome, and the general hospitable cheer was dispensed in the usual old Kentucky style.

The jolly guests departed near midnight showering blessings and congratulations upon Mr. and Mrs. Holstein and wishing them many happy returns of their wedding day.

The Japanese Tea given last evening by Mrs. J. H. Dodson and Mrs. Blaisdell at the latter's home was a very enjoyable affair and was a complete success in every respect. The rooms were filled with guests and every one was enthusiastic in the appreciation of the way the affair was conducted. A very pleasing program of recitations and readings interspersed with music on a guitar and by a quartette was rendered. The climax of the program was the missionary question contest. The members of the Ladies' Missionary, in the interest of whose work the tea was given, were required to stand up and undergo a rigid examination conducted by Rev. Bunton. The questions asked were all concerning the work of missions in China. That these devoted women were fully posted concerning the great cause was fully shown by the way the various questions were answered. A handsome present of Japanese work was awarded to Miss Grace Bierbower and Mrs. Bunton, who stood first and second respectively in the examination. The handsome display of Japanese articles of various kinds was another pleasing feature of the evening. Several handsome young ladies were attractively attired as Japanese maidens, which, together with other novel features, made the evenings entertainment one of real enjoyment and instructive as well. Tea and other refreshments were served and a handsome sum was realized for the object for which the tea was given.

Herman Woosley, superintendent of the State College Experimental farm, was fined $10 and cost Monday in Justice John B. Payn's court for an alleged assault with a strap on Ernest Coyle, a sixteen-year-old Lexington boy.

IN HIS 100TH YEAR

Former Dover Pioneer Celebrates His 99th Birthday at Mentor— Was Born in 1808—Still Hale and Hearty

George Washington Creekbaum, the Dover pioneer, who settled in that town in 1818, celebrated his 99th birthday a few days ago at his home in Mentor, in Campbell county.

Mr. Creekbaum was born in Ohio June 18th, 1808, but moved to Dover with his parents in 1818, where his father was given lot No. 1 in Dover for clearing off the trees for a barbecue when the sale of lots took place.

At his last birthday celebration this week at Mentor, the venerable old man had with him his six children, 19 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

He boasts that he has used tobacco for over 85 years, both smoking and chewing, and also drinks liquor in moderation.

His teeth are still good, never having had a tooth pulled or suffered with toothache.

He never used glasses and can see to read today nearly as well as he ever did.

Neither was he ever confined to his bed with illness and his present health is perfect for a man of his years.

He is the father of Thomas C. and Ralph Creekbaum of Dover, who reside near the lot their grandfather secured in Dover in 1818

Seven killed and ten injured in railroad wreck on N. Y. Central Sunday, at Pittsford, N. Y.

Extensive tests in road making will be conducted by the Government in and around Bowling Green during the summer, all sorts of material being used. The tests will be used as guides for work in all parts of the country.

The intense meteorological changes of the past few days have puzzled the weather sharps and in the popular mind the cause for the terrific electrical storms is to be found in the big black spot now doing business on the face of the sun. The spot which is generally blamed for the eccentric weather is moving toward the Western end of the sun and is expected to disappear around the corner within the next two days.

The gage marks 13.8 and falling.

Another rise, the result of heavy rains, is due at Pittsford.

The Keystone State will pass down tonight from Pittsford.

On account of low water, the Tom Dodsworth and Raymond Horner are tied up near Sewickley.

A new channel will be opened next the lock at Dam No. 18, Ohio river (between Marietta, Ohio, and Parkersburg, W. Va.) on July 1st, and the channel now used will then be closed.

The objections of the Pittsburgh delegation against the proposed big fill of the Wheeling and Lake Erie at Brilliant and Rush Run, O., were so strong that the Board of United States Engineers would not grant the railroad's request to fill in the river at those places.

The following letter was received by the Post Quartermaster:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 13th, 1907.

A. S. Cole, Esq., Fearis, Ky., Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter inviting me to attend your annual reunion in August.

I thank you very much and would be glad to meet on lines of friendship the gallant men I once met in battle, but for whom I now entertain only feelings of regard and esteem.

I fear, however, that I will not be able to do so, at any rate it is impossible for me to determine now whether I can or not. If I find that I shall be able to attend an occasion of such high interest I will notify you.

With best wishes, I am very truly yours,
BASIL W. DUKE.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I had 'em'—yes—a wiggle, squirting mass left me. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder about the same length of a tape-worm that had been sapping my vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers."

The log boom in Guyan river broke again Monday allowing many thousands of logs to escape, besides much valuable lumber and other property.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Maysville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Maysville are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy.

Here is an example worth reading:
John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 and they stopped an attack of backache which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciates the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
